

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 9.

Letter from Loudoun.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

LEESBURG, July 8th, 1887.—A recent trip through the county in the company of one of Alexandria's young and enterprising citizens enabled us to see much of the lately harvested wheat and the growing crops. The former is really almost a failure; any thing like an average yield being out of the question. The oat crop, however, looks well, while corn and grass are flourishing.

The country west of the Catocin mountains never looked better. City people seem to appreciate it, for every village and many country houses are full of them. Our neighbor, Hamilton, looks like a young city in the afternoon, her main thoroughfare being crowded with vehicles and pedestrians enjoying the breezes from the mountains. We found the roads firm, and the general appearance of country and village denoting prosperity.

Our own town is improving, work has commenced on the Town Hall, two new buildings are in course of erection by private parties, and the new depot is approaching completion.

There is much speculation in politics as to who will represent us in the Legislature next fall. There are many calls, but as only one can be chosen who will be the question always asked, and never answered. The temperance men say we shall nominate a man to suit them, which means of course, that they are to dictate, and as the temperance element of the county is largely composed of republicans, it is not likely they will be consulted. As for ourselves we have no fault to find with our present representative, and think it policy to give him the nomination. His democracy is unquestioned and he has no isms to render him ridiculous or to impair his usefulness. However, it is too hot to think, much less write politics, so we await cooler weather with the hope wiser counsel will prevail.

Is There a Cure for Consumption?

We answer unreservedly, yes! If the patient commences in time the use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" and exercises proper care. If allowed to run its course too long all medicine is powerless to stay it. Dr. Pierce never deceives a patient by holding out a false hope for the sake of pecuniary gain. The "Golden Medical Discovery" has cured thousands of patients who nothing else seemed to avail. Your druggist has it. Send two stamps for Dr. Pierce's complete treatise on consumption, with numerous testimonials. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. WINGOLD'S SOUTHERN SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle. mv5-1yrM.W&S
